

PARAGLIDING ACCURACY NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS NORTH WALES
EMERGENCY PROCEDURE

In an emergency the following procedure shall be followed:

- The Launch Marshal shall take charge if the incident is in the vicinity of the launch area, and the Chief Judge shall take charge if the incident is in the vicinity of the landing area.
- All launches shall be suspended.
- Any airborne pilots should land as soon as they are aware of the incident.
- The Launch Marshal / Chief Judge will direct an available First Aider to the incident.
- The First Aider will assess the casualty and determine if the Emergency Services are to be called.
- If necessary the Launch Marshal / Chief Judge shall call the Emergency Services.
- In an Emergency Dial 999 or 112 and use the phrase "casualty fallen from height in remote location" if an aviation incident.
- No other person should contact the emergency services as this could cause confusion.
- If necessary first aid is to be carried out on the casualty until the Ambulance crew arrive and take over.
- The Launch Marshal / Chief Judge is to nominate someone to go to the site entrance to guide in the ambulance.
